Reidsville Police Department: 2015 Homicide Solved

May 5, 2021- The Reidsville Police Department with assistance from the North Carolina State Highway Patrol, arrested Spencer Thomas Fountain, age 27, of Reidsville, NC and charged him with First Degree Homicide in the death of Veronica Broadnax and Discharge of a Barreled Weapon Inside an Occupied Dwelling Resulting in Serious Injury.

On November 14, 2015, at approximately 8 P.M., officers responded to 811 Lindsey Street in reference to shots fired. When officers arrived on scene, they located two victims suffering from gunshot wounds, Veronica Broadnax, age 30, deceased and the other victim being transported to an area hospital, surviving. A previous arrest has been made in this case, Antonio Sherod Scales, age 45, of Reidsville, NC. Scales was later charged with Voluntary Manslaughter in relation to Veronica Broadnax.

Based on information received from the North Carolina State Highway Patrol on May 4, 2021, Investigators with the Reidsville Police Department were able to further develop that information and Fountain was arrested May 5, 2021. Fountain is currently being held at the Rockingham County Sheriff's Department with a $45,000 secured bond and a court date of May 6, 2021.

Anyone with any information pertaining to this case is asked to contact Lieutenant Haley at 336-347-2341 or anonymously contact Rockingham County Crime Stoppers at 336-349-9683.
