

Reside in Reidsville Team reidsville program

Come be a part of the team!

Reside in Reidsville consists of quarterly events designed to acclimate new residents to all the great things they will discover living in their new City! Information will be given out about the City, events, parks and recreation, Chamber of Commerce, things to do, healthcare and much, much more! If you would like to attend one of these fun events, please fill out the following information. The events are free and open to all family members that have moved into the City Limits of Reidsville within the last year. (See below Privacy Policy and how this information will be used.)
